Meeting report

721 Hierarchical interactions: rooted or tolerant but never stopping? S. I. Evans

723 Host–parasite interactions: a second look at the first biophilic interaction between two species. R. M. M. Moore, R. A. MacLean, and J. S. T. G. Brown

726 Evolutionary ecology

732 A test of the adaptive significance of bet-hedging in the clam Mya truncata. J. G. M. Booth and T. P. H. Borchardt

738 Community ecology

741 Herbivore release through cascading risk effects. M. H. Schmidt-Erfurth and E. Stengelhagen

746 Probing aggressive motivation in a non-human primate. F. P. D. de Vries, J. W. M. van den Berg, and D. A. van Spanning

752 Evidence of an evolutionary precursor to human language affixation in a non-human primate. D. A. van Spanning, J. W. M. van den Berg, and F. P. D. de Vries

756 Evolutionary biology

766 Microphagia polymorpha fail to explain the heritability of phylloxeria-induced skin swelling in a wild passerine. C. Bonnemaison, J. S. Schoenmacher, M. Richard, O. Chazot, and D. Sep

771 Should I stay or should I go? The evolution of growth rates on an interspecific scale. C. Guinet, C. J. Forristal, and A. Q. Staford

776 Sexual selection against deleterious resistance polymorphisms fail to explain the heritability of phytophthora-induced skin swelling in a wild passerine. C. Bonnemaison, J. S. Schoenmacher, M. Richard, O. Chazot, and D. Sep

784 Pathogen biology

786 The evolution of growth rates on an interspecific scale. C. Guinet, C. J. Forristal, and A. Q. Staford

789 Evolutionary developmental biology

792 Female presence influences sperm velocity of a trap-building predator. A. M. Nedelcu, D. H. E. Setiamarga, M. Miya, Y. Yamanoue, and B. L. Phillips

795 Sexual selection against deleterious resistance polymorphisms fail to explain the heritability of phytophthora-induced skin swelling in a wild passerine. C. Bonnemaison, J. S. Schoenmacher, M. Richard, O. Chazot, and D. Sep

802 Phylogeny

805 Environmentally induced responses fail to explain the heritability of phylloxeria-induced skin swelling in a wild passerine. C. Bonnemaison, J. S. Schoenmacher, M. Richard, O. Chazot, and D. Sep

809 Bitter taste perception in Neanderthals fail to explain the heritability of phylloxeria-induced skin swelling in a wild passerine. C. Bonnemaison, J. S. Schoenmacher, M. Richard, O. Chazot, and D. Sep

812 Divergence time of the two regional populations fail to explain the heritability of phylloxeria-induced skin swelling in a wild passerine. C. Bonnemaison, J. S. Schoenmacher, M. Richard, O. Chazot, and D. Sep

817 Life history, sexual dimorphism and ‘ornamental’ feathers in the mesozoic bird Confuciusornis sanctus. W. S. Peters and D. S. Peters

821 Climate change: is the dark Soay sheep endangered? B. W. Brook, H. R. Akc ¸akaya, D. A. Keith, J. D. Evans, and M. H. Schmidt-Erfurth

830 Whisker isotopic signature depicts migration patterns and multi-year intra- and inter-individual foraging strategies in farmed salmon. S. K. Maloney, A. Fuller, and D. Mitchell

833 Mitocline skins and goji reveal long-term conservation of New Zealand’s lizard fauna. S. K. Maloney, A. Fuller, and D. Mitchell

835 Adaptation as organism design. A. Gardner

839 Community ecology

845 Crowded locusts produce hatchlings vulnerable to fungal attack. G. T. Kobay, J. K. Roll, and L. J. Sampson

849 Phylogeny

853 Strategic (adaptive) hypothermia in a non-human primate. D. A. van Spanning, J. W. M. van den Berg, and F. P. D. de Vries
