Meeting reports
161. Fostering the rebirth of natural history
S. E. Hamilton & T. A. Wheeler

164. Predicting ecosystem shifts requires new approaches that integrate the effects of climate change across entire systems
S. Townsend, C. Allen & M. B. Manser

174. Keeping up appearances: male fiddler crabs wave faster in a crowd
L. G. Cheke & N. S. Clayton

189. Scared and less noisy: glucocorticoids are the independent scientific academy
L. Sartori, F. Xompero, G. Bucchioni

201. Corvids can decide if a future exchange is worth waiting for
S. W. Townsend, C. Allen & M. B. Manser

205. Context-dependent tool use in New Caledonian crows
D. T. Blumstein & Y. Y. Chi

208. Masculinized female yellow-bellied marmots initiate more social interactions
K. E. Byers & K. Miller

211. Dolphin whistles: a functional misnomer revealed by heliox breathing
L. T. Quakenbush & J. J. Citta

214. Suppression of fungal and nematode plant pathogens through arbuscular mycorrhizal fungi
S. D. Wessels & M. C. Rillig

Conservation biology
218. Tracking long-distance migration to assess marine pollution impact
W. Moir, A. M. Hein & K. J. Keirsted

220. Experimental evidence for real-time prediction of the onset of flowering
E. Bermúdez-Cuamatzin, A. A. Ríos-Chelén, E. Martínez-Palacios & T. P. Hahn

229. Dispersal of Symbiodinium: a deep-sea squid and its microparasite
M. K. Michiels & H. Schulenburg

230. Defence strategies against a parasitoid wasp
M. Pickup & S. C. H. Barrett

234. Increased responsiveness in feeding strategies of the harlequin ladybird, inhibits mycobacterial growth and demonstrates a rapid response
M. S. Y. Lee & T. H. Worthy

236. Embryonic exposure to conspecific chemicals suppresses cane toad growth and survival
N. K. Michiels & H. Schulenburg

237. Birth control in a deep-sea squid
S. Huang, T. J. Davies & J. L. Gittleman

241. A stab in the dark: chick killing by brood parasitic honeyguides
A. Gonda, K. Välimäki, G. Herczeg & J. Merilä

245. Father's adverse gondal at sexual maturity and reproduction timing in British men
R. Sheldon & S. Bear

246. Brain development and predation: plastic responses depend on evolutionary history
D. H. Hembry, T. Okamoto & R. G. Gillespie

249. Brain development and predation: plastic responses depend on evolutionary history

253. Horizontally transferred fungal carotenoid genes in the two-spotted spider mite
M. H. Byard, R. Haertl, C. Malos

258. Repeated colonization of remote islands by specialized mutualists
D. H. Hembry, T. Okamoto & R. G. Gillespie

259. Opinion piece. Plasticity of preferred body temperatures as means of coping with climate change?
A. M. Hein & K. J. Keirsted

262. The mixing of warm water in coastal California
M. H. Byard, R. Haertl, C. Malos

266. The mixing of warm water in coastal California
T. Okamoto & R. G. Gillespie

267. Community ecology
271. 241. Anterior killer whales make rapid, round-trip movements to subtropical waters: evidence for physiological maintenance migration?
M. Pickup & S. C. H. Barrett

278. Assessment of hypoxia-inducible factor-1α mRNA expression in mantis shrimp as a biomarker of environmental hypoxia exposure
E. Kodama, M. Snyder-Rahman, H. M. Hanley & V. T. Pate

282. Fostering the rebirth of natural history
S. Townsend, C. Allen & M. B. Manser

287. A shot in the dark: same-sex sexual behaviour in a deep-sea squid
J. H. Hoving, S. L. Bush & T. Degenkolb

291. How global extinctions impact regional and survival
C. A. F. Wascher, A. Braun, V. Dufour, C. A. F. Wascher, A. Braun, J. P. Myatt

295. Mid-Cretaceous charred fossil flowers reveal direct observation of arthropod feeding strategies
S. Garthe, A. Hedd, J.-F. Rail & G. Robertson

299. Likelihood reinstates Amphiopus as a primitive bird
C. W. Groth & T. H. Worthy

303. Harmonine, a defence compound from the harlequin ladybird, inhibits mycobacterial growth and demonstrates a rapid response
R. J. Sharp, M. W. Hankins & R. G. Foster

308. Repeated colonization of remote islands by specialized mutualists
A. Gonda, K. Välimäki, G. Herczeg & J. Merilä

312. Opinion piece. Plasticity of preferred body temperatures as means of coping with climate change?
A. M. Hein & K. J. Keirsted

316. Taylor's Law holds in experimental marine populations but competition does not influence the slope
M. S. Y. Lee & T. H. Worthy

Population ecology
318. Taylor's Law holds in experimental marine populations but competition does not influence the slope
B. H. Robison

320. Experimental evidence for real-time song frequency shift in response to urban noise in a passerine bird
E. Bernisse-Cuatrecasas, A. A. Boush-Chén, O. Gal & C. M. García

Animal behaviour
167. Adaptive significance of permanent female residency in a bird of prey
A. Bernisse-Cuatrecasas, F. Saura & V. Kringstad

171. Eurasian jays (Carrulus glandarius) overcome their current desires to anticipate two distinct future needs and plan for them appropriately
L. Gvozdík

174. Keeping up appearances: male fiddler crabs wave faster in a crowd
B. R. C. Atherton, M. D. Jesson & P. R. S. Backwell

179. A simple test of vocal individual recognition in wild meerkats
S. W. Townsend, C. Allin & M. B. Marler

183. An airborne sex pheromone in snakes
R. Shie & B. T. Minton

185. Male visual harassment alters female social behaviour towards other females
L. M. D. Young & E. N. Greenberg

188. Changing song repertoire and timing of reproduction in Caledonian crows are associated with alarm call entropy
D. T. Blumstein & Y. Y. Chi

193. The transfer of motor functional systems via action observation
L. Santini, F. Komper, G. Buchon & L. Cassedo

197. Is the true ‘wisdom of the crowd’ to copy others?
L. Sartori, F. Xompero, G. Bucchioni

203. Context-dependent tool use in New Caledonian crows
M. Pickup & S. C. H. Barrett

207. Masculinized female yellow-bellied marmots initiate more social interactions
K. E. Byers & K. Miller

210. Corncrakes can decide if a future exchange is worth waiting for
S. W. Townsend, C. Allen & M. B. Manser

211. Dolphin whistles: a functional misnomer revealed by heliox breathing
L. T. Quakenbush & J. J. Citta

214. Suppression of fungal and nematode plant pathogens through arbuscular mycorrhizal fungi
S. D. Wessels & M. C. Rillig
